Without question, the full implementation of the existing MOU linked to specific Tribal recommendations would go a long way in providing a more comprehensive level of care to our veterans. Specifically, the agencies agreed to many things, including the sharing of information technology and an interagency work group to oversee proposed national initiatives. Mr. Chairman, if the agencies who are a party to this agreement would, as a matter of priority, establish an internal and external - including Tribal - work group to begin developing a strategy, then they could discuss how that strategy should be resourced and im-plemented. An item not covered in the existing MOU concerns payment to Tribal facilities for care rendered to eligible veterans in Tribal clin-ics. The Tribes rely heavily upon third-party collections to support clinic operations. It seems logical that for Medicare and Medicaid and privately insured individuals, the clinics can seek reimburse-ment. We are aware that the VA does have the ability to contract with the private sector to pay for the care of veterans, yet Tribally-operated clinics cannot, as we understand, seek the same. It would be easily incorporated into statute if this Committee were so in-clined. Absent the reimbursement, we will still provide what care we can, but the resources or the absence of resources controls the scope of care. Mr. Chairman, I could speak for hours about the specific needs of the 480 veterans living on my reservation. My purpose and goal today...
