Prayer has a different meaning to many. Consequently prayer becomes harder that what it really is. Pray and Pray Some More details the forms of prayer. It details how you can take the mystery out of prayer and overcome any struggle you may have encountered. Pray and Pray Some More will biblically take you on a journey and show you that your prayer is heard. It will show you that an answer is on the way tailored specially for you. Pray and Pray Some More will encourage you not to give up, it will show you how you can start your own prayer life without a struggle. Pray and Pray Some More is a powerful testimonial to the power of prayer. Yolanda Brick is a Scientist, married with four children. Currently resides in Arizona. Yolanda is an advocate for prayer, thus Pray and Pray Some More. She believes that while we have all the problems, God has all the solutions. She has learned that nothing is too big or too small for the Lord. She really enjoys the part where she can come before the Lord with the most intimate details of her life and be confident these details are not office gossip. She has started and is looking for prayer warriors. She wants to unite people, kinsmen, clans, families, tribes, etc. to pray for one another and believe God for the miracles. She wants people to collaborate with and dream big for our nation and one another.
